YOURTALK.FM SELECTED FOR STARTUPBOOTCAMP MEDIA ACCELERATOR PROGRAM IN AMSTERDAM

Startupbootcamp Amsterdam Selects Yourtalk.fm to Join Its Media Growth Accelerator

Berlin/Amsterdam, 10/07/2019

The Startup Yourtalk.fm, that converts Radio into a Social Network – and Social Networks into Radio, joins Startupbootcamp Media, the leading global startup and scaleup accelerator program focusing on the media industry. Along with 10 other international startups, Yourtalk.fm will take part in its 2019 program in Amsterdam.

Yourtalk.fm has taken part in an intense screening process at Startupbootcamp Selection Days with 20 other international startups in front of mentors and partners and the Startupbootcamp managing team at rent24 co-working space in Amsterdam on 2nd and 3rd of July. Yourtalk.fm was chosen out of 400+ applications during a 4-month international scouting period and went through a rigorous selection for the chance to join the next accelerator cohort. The startups will directly benefit from the strategic support of the partners, industry leaders, mentors and investors of the program, and the Startupbootcamp network.

Yourtalk.fm will now take part in an intense 3-month acceleration program in Amsterdam that will start on the 19th of August and will end with the Demo Day in front of hundreds of influencers, mentors, partners, and investors in November 2019.

Bas Rogaar, Managing Director of the Startupbootcamp Media program, commented: „Media and Entertainment is the top industry at risk of disruption, and more focus is required to accelerate corporate-startup-collaborations in this area. We are bringing the 11 most promising new companies in this space to our hub in Amsterdam to have them working directly with our team, corporate partners, mentors, and investors. Selected startups will have the opportunity to grow on an international scale. We are glad to have Yourtalk.fm joining the program as well to truly accelerate its growth.”

Ralf Kühling, Co-Founder of yourtalk.fm explains: „My vision is to create an audio social network, where true emotions can be shared, and opinions can be discussed openly. On the Yourtalk.fm-App the users meet in talk rounds. Everybody can be a talkmaster, and invite to his talk show. Everybody can be talkguest. Or just listen.”

„We think that Startupbootcamp offers the perfect mix of mentorship and networking to help grow yourtalk.fm. We thank Startupbootcamp and its investors for the trust and this great opportunity”, adds Clemens Grossmann, Co-Founder of yourtalk.fm.

After completing the accelerator program in November, the startups will be supported by the Startupbootcamp Alumni Growth Program, which connects over 800 startups globally.

About Yourtalk.fm

In social networks the users can send post, pictures, links - but have no answer guaranteed. And no real group discussions like in their daily lives.

The missing link is: Real Time Communication.

Yourtalk.fm changes that. On the Yourtalk.fm-App the users meet in talk rounds. Everybody can be a talkmaster, and invite to his talk show. Everybody can be talkguest. Or just listen: The new Audio social network is also new social radio. For more information visit: <http://www.yourtalk.fm>
